VOCABULARY

- Plot – storyline or order of events
- Set – scenery for a play
- Costumes
- Acting
- Music

LEARN

1. Yesterday, you wrote a proper theatre review about the production of 'A Midsummer Night's Dream'.
2. Today you are going to edit and improve your writing!

YOUR TASK

1. Read your work out loud to yourself, or (even better!) someone else. Then with a different coloured pencil or pen:
 - a) Correct any grammar errors:
 - Are there missing words?
 - Does every sentence have a full stop and capital letter?
 - Do all the names have capital letters?
 - b) Improve your writing:
 - Could you use more interesting vocabulary?
 - Have you used some of the sentence starters?
2. Can you illustrate your review with an image from the play? Perhaps your favourite character or scene.
