

Lesson 1: WHAT IS AIR POLLUTION?

- I know why we need clean air
- I know what air pollution is

Part 1: London during the Great Smog (1952)

Write some notes on what you think it would have been like for people in London during the Great Smog:

Part I I: Why do we need clean air?

Write two reasons why we need clean air:

1) _____

2) _____

Part III: What is air pollution?

Complete the sentences below, using the key vocabulary provided:

Air pollution occurs when unwanted gases and particles (known as _____) get into the air enter the Earth's _____ (the air), causing harm to animals and plants and damaging the _____ of the Earth.

Air pollution contributes to _____, including by damaging the Earth's _____, making it unable to protect Earth from harmful radiation from the Sun.

global warming

atmosphere

pollutants

ozone layer

natural cycles