

Use four counters and a place value grid. Place all four counters in either the ones, tenths or hundredths column.

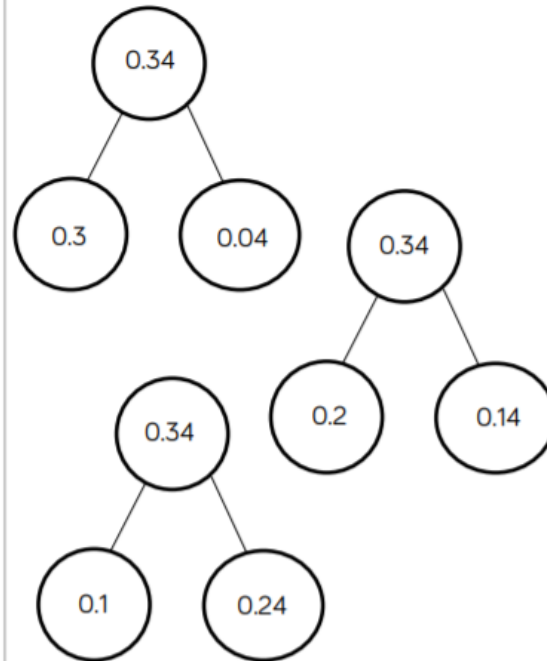

How many different numbers can you make?

Describe the numbers you have made by completing the sentences.

There are  ones,  tenths and  hundredths.

ones +  tenths +  hundredths =

Ron says he can partition 0.34 in more than one way.

Use Ron's method to partition 0.45 in more than one way.