LEARN

What is the purpose of a script?

In its basic form, a script is written record of what should be said including how it should be said.

Watch the lesson to find out about the different types of play scripts and the structure and features of a stage play.

For extra research check out the scripts available on <https://www.bbc.co.uk/writersroom/scripts>

And for some fantastic recordings of live theatre checkout the Cbeebies Presents on BBC iplayer <https://www.bbc.co.uk/iplayer/episode/b09xjby9/cbeebies-presents-cbeebies-the-tempest>

YOUR TASK

1. Have a read of the 'Little Red Riding Hood' script as an example of play scripts. You can find this linked with this document in the Virtual School page or email.

2. Watch the play 'When will you grow up?' and write its script.

For help, look at the script template that you can find this linked with this document in the Virtual School page or email.

Whilst you watch, think about

- What you can see
- What is said
- How it is said
- Any scene changes

3. Challenge: try creating a performance of 'Little Red Riding Hood'
