

ENGLISH

Lesson 5: Writing a biography

VOCABULARY

WsOW (Words of the Week)

desire (v) -to want something more than anything else / (n) -a strong feeling of wanting

host (v) -a person who holds events for others practice (n) -an activity that is the usual way of doing something typical (adj) -having qualities specific to a person or thing variety (adj) -a wide range of different things

LEARN

Let's write our biographies!

Word bank

Success Criteria:

I have used titles and subtitles

I have included an introduction

I have written in 3rd person

I have included; rhetorical questions, embedded clauses, fronted adverbials, sequencers and technical vocabulary

, more famously know for/as...,

, who ...,

, also known as...,

Everyone deserves ... right?

At this time,

Whilst ...,

When ...,

During...,

Interestingly,

Consequently,

Unfortunately,

Understandably,

Initially / to start with

After...,

Before...,

YOUR TASK

- Write a biography about someone inspiring.

Example

Katherine Johnson

Everyone should be encouraged to follow their dreams right? Nowadays we are told to aim high and be whatever we want to be. You could be an astronaut, nurse or engineer if you wanted to, regardless of your gender or the colour of your skin. However it hasn't always been like this. In the past, certain jobs were not available for everyone and people had to fight very hard to be able to study and apply for certain roles.

One such person was Katherine Johnson who paved the way for young girls aspiring to work for NASA.

Early life

Katherine Johnson, born Creola Katherine Coleman, was born in ...

