

ENGLISH

Thursday 14th May 2020

L.I: I can independently write the buildup and climax of a story

VOCABULARY

Synonyms for:

walk: creep, tiptoe, saunter, step, wander, wobble

look: peer, stare, glance, glimpse, examine, inspect

LEARN

How many synonyms for walk and look can you come up with?

- Read over yesterday's work and correct any mistakes
- Read over the rising action/ build up and climax/ problem sections of your story mountain plan - What will you be writing about today?
- What writing techniques should be included in our writing?
- Look over today's success criteria

Success Criteria

- I have included direct speech
- I have used speech marks
- I have included short snappy sentences
- I have included onomatopoeia
- I have used show not tell techniques
- I have included expanded noun phrases
- I have used fronted adverbials and a range of sentence types
- I have checked my work for mistakes

YOUR TASK

1. Use your plan and word bank from this week to write the 'rising action' section of your story.
2. Readthrough your work and check off the ideas mentioned in your plan and the techniques you have included from the success criteria
3. Use your plan and word bank from this week to write the 'climax' section of your story.
4. Readthrough your work and check off the ideas mentioned in your plan and the techniques you have included from the success criteria