

GEOGRAPHY

BRAZIL AND THE AMAZON RAINFOREST

WEEK COMMENCING 23RD MARCH

VOCABULARY

Human features – things which are built by humans and would not have existed in nature without humans.

Culture - a word for the 'way of life' of groups of people (meaning the way they do things)

LEARN

Find the A3 sheet in your work pack which has Rio de Janeiro and London written at the top.

- Read all about the Human Features of Rio, then summarise them on the lines below.
- Read all about the Human Features of London, then summarise them on the lines below.
- Next, think of a similarity between Rio and London – what human features do they BOTH have?
- Then, think of a difference – what does Rio have that London does not.

YOUR TASK

Imagine you are on holiday in Rio de Janeiro. You are going to write a postcard home, telling your friend all about the holiday. Which HUMAN features did you experience? Did you dance your socks off at the Carnival? Or did you learn a little Portuguese when you were watching a football match?

Write your postcard on your sheet and send us a photo of your work!
