

HISTORY

QUICK QUIZ ANSWERS

1. Why was Germany angry at the outcomes of the Treaty of Versailles in 1919? Any of the following: Germany had to accept blame for starting the war, Germany had to pay billions in reparations, Germany had to give up a lot of territory, Germany had to reduce their army down to 100,000 men, Germany could only keep six battleships and could have no submarines or air force.
2. Why did France want Germany's penalty to be the most severe during treaty talks? They were very annoyed by the damage Germany had done to France's land and people. They were also worried because their country bordered German territory.
3. Who used anger and resentment in Germany to his favour when rising to power in the early 1930s? Adolf Hitler
4. How was Hitler able to convince crowds of people to support his cause? He was a brilliant public speaker.
5. Which action, initiated by Adolf Hitler, caused World War II to break out? The invasion of Poland on September 1st 1939.