

Lesson 3: What is the Grand Iftar in Bristol?

During the month of Ramadan Muslims do not eat or drink anything between sunrise and sunset.

Iftar is the meal that Muslims eat to break their fast during Ramadan.

Each year Muslims in Bristol hold a Grand Iftar in the street and invite everyone to join them.

Iftar is a celebration meal at the end of a hard day of fasting (not eating).

Describe what happens at the Grand Iftar and why

Why do you think Bristol's Muslims invite people of all faiths (and no faith) to their Iftar?
