

Lesson 5:

- I can observe, compare and contrast animals at first hand or through videos and photographs.

Answer the following questions.

How do plants help animals survive? _____

How do animals help plants survive? _____

Which of these animals is the odd one out? Why do you think so? How many reasons can you think of?

Now complete 4 sentences comparing the animals you have discussed.

The _____ is different from the _____ because _____

The _____ is different from the _____ because _____

The _____ is different from the _____ because _____

The _____ is different from the _____ because _____

Why do some animals have claws?

“Animals have claws so that...”

Why do some animals have fins?

Why do some animals have shells?

There are more animals and features to look at on the whiteboard!

Some animals have claws in order to _____ _____ Some animals have fins in order to _____ _____ Some animals have shells in order to _____ _____ Watch the films and then complete this page

L1: I can observe, compare and contrast animals at first hand or through videos and photographs.

gills

wings

fins

fur

tentacles

beak

feathers

scaly skin

claws

trunk

|

Can you label the different structure for each of the animals?

