

- 38 A fruit seller packed 9000 apples into 300 boxes.
Find the number of apples in each box.

- 39 A furniture shop is offering these items for sale.

- (a) A hotel buys 25 sofas for their rooms. What is the total cost?

- (b) A new café owner buys 2 dining tables and 12 chairs.
How much does he need to pay?

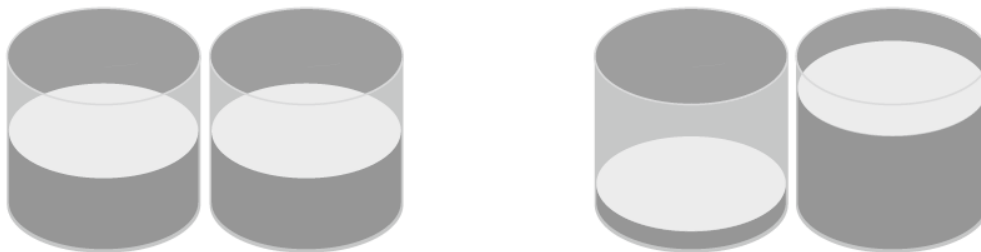

Section C

- 41 The timetable below shows part of the train schedule from London Fields to Enfield Town.

London Fields to Enfield Town
London Fields		18:28	18:37		18:52
Hackney Downs	18:25	18:20	18:39	18:40	18:54
Clapton	18:28			18:43
Rectory Road		18:33	18:42		18:57
Edmonton Green		18:47	18:56		19:11
Enfield Town		18:56	19:05		19:20

Hannah took the 18:28 train from London Fields to meet Emma at Enfield Town. Emma took the 18:42 train from Rectory Road. How much longer was Hannah's journey than Emma's?

- 42 There was an equal amount of water in container A and B. After 2856 ml of water was transferred from container A to container B, container B had 5 times more water than container A had.

(a) How much water is there in the two containers altogether?

(b) How much water was there in each container to begin with?

43 Mr Smith wants to decorate the hall with red and green lights for Christmas. He wants to have 5 red lights between any 2 green lights.

(a) If Mr Smith uses a total of 500 lights, how many green lights would he need?

(b) If he uses 280 red lights, how many green lights will be in the hall?

44 Ruby is making party bags for her birthday party. She buys 48 boxes containing 24 bars of chocolate each and 96 boxes containing 16 lollies each. Ruby then packs different assortments of 9 bars of chocolate and lollies into each party bag. How many party bags will she have?

45 A bag of rice weighs $6\frac{3}{10}$ kg. It is $2\frac{3}{5}$ kg heavier than a bag of beans.
What is the total weight of the two bags?