

ENGLISH

VOCABULARY

Remarked – said
Exceedingly – very
Perished – suffering from extreme cold
Paternally – in a fatherly role
Shabby – old/scruffy
Dimly – lit with a faint light
Stout – a heavy build

LEARN

- Listen to the text being read.
- Read the key vocabulary list above. If there are any other words you do not understand, try to use the context of the sentence to help you.
- Model response Q3 The last paragraph suggests Badger is more friendly than at the beginning of the extract. What do you think will happen next? Make reference to the text.

Towards the end of the passage, once Badger has realised who is at the door, he becomes very welcoming. He ushers the terrified Ratty and Mole into the warmth of the fire-lit kitchen. I think that Badger will offer his two visitors food and a warm drink to enjoy.

YOUR TASK

Answer your questions on the 'Mr Badger' extract.