Focus

Remember, a prefix is a group of letters at the beginning of a word.

When we use all as a prefix, we always drop one l.

all + ways = always

- A Copy the correct spelling of each word in your book.
- |                          |                             |
|--------------------------|-----------------------------|
| 1 almost or allmost      | 2 already or allready       |
| 3 although or allthrough | 4 allso or also             |
| 5 allmighty or almighty  | 6 altogether or alltogether |

- B Write a sentence about the picture below that includes at least three al words.

a al ad af

All means everyone or everything.
But when a word begins with the all prefix, it usually has only one L.
Be careful! 'All right' is two words.

A Use a dictionary to find the meaning of each of these words.

- 1 altogether _____
- 2 also _____
- 3 although _____
- 4 almighty _____

B Choose four words from the box and write a sentence for each one.

already	also	altogether	although
almost	almighty	always

- 1 _____
- 2 _____
- 3 _____
- 4 _____

a al ad af

- A Add six more words with the same first syllable to each column in this table. Use a dictionary to help you.

ad	af	al	a
admire	afflict	always	ahead
advance	affection	almighty	around

- Write a short story that uses as many as possible of the words in the box.
