L.I: I can plan a story

Climax

The argonauts and King Streetwise give Kasper an ultimatum: Leave the salon to them or get a black eye. Kasper heads for Pumpkin but is made to leave her behind. King streetwise keeps Pumpkin in one of the salon's glass display cabinets.
Hushabye comforts Kasper and they head back to the arch.

Rising Action

Skinnybones kicks a long leg though the window and enters. Heartthrob disappears and Hushabye sneaks out of sight to watch over Kasper.

Falling Action

Hushabye apologises and encourages Kasper to fight back. They hatch a plan together. Heartthrob shaves off his hair to look like Hushabye and lure the king out of the salon.
Kasper convinces the unsuspecting king to take a nap on the moth infested sunbed.
Streetwise runs off into the gloom.

Background

Kasper feels used and betrayed by his new friends. He tells them that if this is what friendship is really like then he doesn't want friends.

The argonauts aplogise and help Kasper clean up the salon. Punpkin meets all the lost and names them the rediscovered. They make plans to rebuild the nothing. Skinnybones wants to create a florists, Poodlecut and Knuckle head set up a pet shop and grooming centre... etc.
