

AF 4 - Language

1. The storm pounded on the farmhouse door. Can you think of any synonyms for 'pounded'? Try list at least 3.

2. How does the storm speak to farmer Potter? Use evidence from the text.

3. A storm can be scary and dangerous yet the word 'warm' is used three times in the last paragraph. Use the text to explain why.

AF 2 – Understanding

4. When the heavens are crying, what is happening? Draw and label your answer.

5. Why does the author say the 'cornfields waved in the distance'?

AF3 - Inference

6. Why is a black wolf chosen by the author to describe the storm clouds?

7. Who do you think Jess and Meg are in the story?

8. What do you think the iron beast in the tool shed is?
