

Lesson Five: Dealing with friendships

You will have the same friends for the rest of your life. True or False

It is normal to have disagreements with your friends. True or False

Sometimes people like to have time by themselves True or False

Whenever someone hurts you it is always on purpose. True or False

Everyone has the communication skills to explain how they feel. True or False

We all should feel happy all of the time True or False

Have a discussion with someone at home about your answers. Can you come up with your own facts about friendships?

